

SEMINAR ON INTEGRATED SKILLS FOR THE FUTURE EDUCATORS

A seminar on “Integrated Skills for the Future Educators” was held at CMS College of Education, on October 08, 2024. The main aim of the seminar was to equip future educators with essential integrated skills that are crucial for success in modern teaching and learning environments. The programme started with a prayer song by Ms. Mukuntha G, First Year B.Ed. student, followed by a welcome address by the Principal, Dr. M. Leonard Ashok, who also introduced us to the basics of the programme. The chief guest of the day was Mr. D. Srinivasan, Managing Director of Bascet Group. He is a highly accomplished industrial leader and educator, with rich experience in engineering, business management and skill development. With his rich expertise and insightful perspectives, he focused on providing information to empower aspiring educators, by equipping them with essential integrated skills for effective teaching in the 21st Century learning environment. It was a comprehensive session on the significance of integrating communication, critical thinking, creativity and collaboration in the teaching-learning process. Overall, the seminar provided students a valuable opportunity to learn technical and leadership skills. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from student-teachers, faculty members and academic guests. The session concluded with a discussion, leaving the attendees enriched with practical strategies and renewed motivation to excel as future educators. The vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. C. Sumathi, Assistant Professor, Department of Biological Science, and the programme ended with the National Anthem.
